

Please DO NOT pass any new rules to allow cell phone use on aircraft during flight. It is annoying enough to have to listen to the people use them before take off and after landing. There should be some consideration given to people who want to be left out of other people's business. Thanks for your consideration to those of us whose prefer to have peace and quiet aboard the aircraft. Can you imagine the noise with all that extra chatter?